Opportunities to Invest in Tomorrow's Talent

“Employers note the dedication and hard work required to complete such an intensive program like the 11-Month MBA. The program gave me a larger tool kit to allow higher-level decision making. I use the finance and accounting knowledge gained in the program on a daily basis to manage the business.”

—Breck Overall, '02 MBA,
General Manager,
Forest Suites Resort, CA

*Business today requires more knowledge, skills and talent than ever. Through a close partnership with the business community, the Business School at UC Denver is constantly refining its programs to meet the needs of tomorrow's management leaders. ### The Challenge

Today's environment calls for a combination of academic research, business practicality, breadth across disciplines and depth of knowledge. A world-class education must be available to expand the cadre of leadership and skilled professionals. An integrated business school models interconnectedness between among students, faculty and partners as well as cutting-edge research, curriculum and experience. Your investment in our business programs, faculty and students will allow this ideal to be fully realized here in Denver.

The Program

Students can earn a Bachelor of Science with an emphasis on accounting, finance, human resources management, information systems, international business, marketing or management. These degree programs ensure every student has access to a well-rounded education for venturing into the business environment.

When it comes to balancing scholarship with practical experience, the Business School's accelerated 11-Month MBA epitomizes the business school's offerings. Students in this full-time program get the opportunity to present integrated solutions to high level executives representing our corporate partners.

The Executive MBA provides the perspective, knowledge and skills necessary to lead Fortune 500 firms. Managers preparing for promotion into top management roles have an opportunity to reflect on business practices with a hand-picked group of peers and outstanding faculty members.

The Professional MBA rounds out the impressive selection of degrees. Delivered either as a part-time or full-time evening program for working professionals, it offers a look inside case studies, access to renowned guest speakers and a rigorous level of education, energy and experience that graduates can take into their careers.

The Investment from You

Your investment enables the Business School to create and sustain programs that maximize accessibility and excellence in education. Creating the brightest pool of graduates requires attracting excellent students with scholarships and retaining top notch faculty through fellowships, chairs and scholars in residence. With your support, our students will go on to lead tomorrow's organizations and shape tomorrow's world for the better.
