

Parent Fund Gifts Enrich The Student Experience

These are just a few of the many programs made possible through the Parent Fund.

Center for Community

"With a new dining facility and student services all in one place, the Center for Community is the hub of student life. It literally transforms how we serve students who live on and off-campus."

Julie Wong

Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs

Student Programs

"Thanks to the Parent Fund safe and alternative programs are available for students, such as Battle of the Bands, CU NightRide, and Friday late-night movies."

Deb Coffin

Dean of Students

Grants and Scholarships

"Each year, the Parent Fund enables the CU Parents Association to award thousands of dollars in grants and scholarships to student groups and campus programs that enrich the undergraduate experience."

George Ballinger

Director of Parent Relations

Join a Community of Parents Who are Making a Difference

At CU-Boulder, we're proud to provide a quality education that creates tomorrow's leaders. We're committed to engaging parents and students alike in our campus community.

Many of the programs that make this happen could not exist without generous parents supporting CU-Boulder through the Parent Fund.

Supporting Student Success From Move-in Through Graduation

Parents Can Make All The Difference

Fact is, many support services that can make a difference in a successful college experience are not covered by tuition. Instead, CU relies on private gifts to enrich the student experience.

The Parent Fund is an annual fund that helps support student success—from move-in through graduation—by sustaining vital programs that contribute to your student’s education.

How does the Parent Fund work?

Every year parents are contacted by mail, student callers, or parent fund staff and are invited to make a gift that will support a variety of student services—many that exist only because of the Parent Fund.

How are Parent Fund gifts spent?

The Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, who determines how to support an ever-changing student body and respond to critical needs, administers the fund. Funding goes to programs that keep students healthy and safe, help them succeed, and prepare them to step out into the world.

“The more I found out about the Parent Fund, the more I learned about the programs made possible through its support. The goal is to help a great institution become even stronger, and to enable its graduates to go out and make a difference.”

Brad and Paula Butler
CU-Boulder parents

How much should I give?

While your student is at CU-Boulder, we ask that you consider making the Parent Fund one of your top philanthropic priorities. Annual leadership gifts of $2,500+ receive membership in the Parent Leadership Society, accruing special benefits and invitations to Parent Fund and university events.

Regardless of size, every gift to the Parent Fund matters. Smaller gifts add up and quickly make a difference.
